

Maxine Archambault

Maxine's passion for art led her to pursue Fashion Design, and Illustration. Ocean Breeze is a resort wear collection inspired by the beach and the relaxing feeling that comes from it. The movement of the ocean and its hidden beauties come to life in the embellishments and details.

Julie Rovere

Julie's designs are often inspired by her love for art which has been reflected in her streetwear collection Neo Geo and through her fabrics. An underlying 1980s vibe is also being evoked through the use of geometric lines, and shapes throughout her silhouettes.

Parise Leclerc

When she realized her high school notebooks contained more drawings of gowns than actual notes, Parise decided to follow her love for fashion design. Her eveningwear collection, Vitreous evokes the lustre, translucence, and delicateness of a pressed flower petal.

Nicole Winfield

Nicole started her journey of learning long before she started attending Fanshawe College. By bringing traditional craft to her collection Modern Heritage, Nicole wanted to explore the dynamics between a contemporary woman and her heritage. Nicole hopes to continue to change perspectives of crochet through her future design endeavours.

Mija Jung

Mija grew up in South Korea and moved to Canada at the age of 40. She has had a love for fashion since her teenage years. She looks forward to applying what she has learned at Fanshawe to her growing design business. Her collection Hybrid is inspired by traditional Korean Hanbok dresses.

Alysha Venhuizen

Inspired by the instances in which women feel intensely beautiful, and the thought of time being the ultimate luxury, Alysha translates power and desirable beauty through the use of delicate fabrics and strong, enticing prints in her spring/summer 2017 separates collection Allure.

Cassy Kelly

Cassy is inspired by nature and the world around her. She is constantly drawing inspiration from what she sees in her daily life. Cassy's collection, Komorebi is inspired by the utility of nature, and the melding of rural and urban lifestyles.

Tyler Foreshow

Tyler always pushes herself further in order to learn and grow as a designer. Finding inspiration in unexpected places is her favorite part of the design process. Her Spring/Summer 17 Collection Gold Rarity is inspired by gold, minerals, and their impact on the world.

Alejandra Martelo Fernandez

Recognizing that her passion and love for fashion had been with her since she was a young girl, Alejandra decided to pursue her dream of becoming a fashion designer. Through her collection Exotic Glamour, Alejandra weds modern day glamour with the exotic beauty, and colourful nature of her Colombian heritage.

Megan Kompter

Being both an entrepreneur and a creative soul, Megan knew Fashion Design would be right for her. After graduating, Megan plans on applying what she has learned at Fanshawe to her accessories business. Her collection Halcyonic Rush is inspired by the waters of Nova Scotia, and her Celtic heritage.

Adrian Zhao

When designing, Adrian always strives to surpass himself. His collection, The Vein, explores the beauty of life, while associating the mystery of the jungle with the techniques of haute couture. Primitive energy, and intricate detailing come together in harmony in this truly splendid collection.

Max Qiu

As a Fashion Designer, Max wants to design garments that make their wearers feel confident and positive. Believing that the key to confidence lies in an effortless look, Max used minimalist silhouettes, and lines to evoke her design philosophy in her collection Confident.

Toryn Krezek

From a very young age, Toryn always knew she belonged in the creative world. Her love of intricate design drives her to push herself beyond all expectations. Her collection White De-Vil features hand-sewn embellishments, fur, delicate silks and sculpted neoprene.

Louise Marchand

As a designer, Louise has always focused on the aesthetic that is her customer, enabling them to look effortlessly beautiful while still accentuating their own style. Resplendent is an architectural collection that combines Louise's love of impeccable details and dramatic silhouettes through fluid forms and geometric laser cutting.

Alice Cui

When designing, Alice is often inspired by the arts and spends most of her day filling up the pages of her sketchbook. In her collection Limitless Edge, geometric elements and meticulous craftsmanship result in show-stopping pleats, tucks, and tube ruffles.

Zhuojun Liu

Zhuojun Liu first fell in love with fashion after designing a winter coat in high school. Zhuojun's specialty is to design women's garments that are sleek, effortless, and sophisticated as demonstrated in her spring/summer 2017 collection Monochrome Elegance.
